Mass State Convention.

We, the undersigned, recommend the holding of a Mass State Convention, at Madison, on Wednesday the 4th day of June, 1856, for the purpose of appointing six delegates at large and three delegates from each Congressional District, to represent the Republicans of Wisconsin in the National Republican Convention to be held at Philadelphia the 17th day of June next, to nominate candidates for President and Vice President, and to organize the Republican party of the State. All persons are cordially invited to attend and take part in the proceedings of this Convention, who hold to the principles of the Republican Platform adopted July 13th, 1854 when the Republican party of the State was inaugurated, viz: Freedom or Slavery the Chief political issue.

Freedom in all the United States Territories. No Slave States.

The Abrogation of the Fugitive Slave Act.

Equality of Political Rights irrespective of birth, nationality or religion.

The support of such men only for office as are positively and fully committed to these principles, and whose personal character and conduct are a guarantee that they wanted, the democratic principle of Squatter Sovereignty.

Such were the representations and pretensions of the administration when with every means at its command, with the power of its mighty patronage, by buying some, deceiving some, and frightening others, it succeeded in repealing the Missouri Compromise.

The people of Kansas, going thither to find homes on its beautiful, salubrious and fertile plains—whether from the North, South, East or West—were assured that they should have the management of their own affairs, and by their own votes determine the question of Slavery or Freedom. With this understanding they left their old places of abode, and hastened to find in this new and genial realm, beyond the Missouri, a place to plant themselves and their little ones for life.

And who are the settlers of Kansas? They are mainly Western men. Some supposed that they were all from New England, and sent out by her abolition societies. This is not true; though he had never been able to see why New England men had not as good a right to settle in Kansas as any other set of men.

The people of Kansas are a conservative, law-abiding, liberty-loving people, and any man who says they are abolitionists, in any such sense as desiring to interfere with Slavery in the States, is a slanderer and a liar. Abolitionist was coming to mean something very different, he said now. He himself had been called an abolitionist when only trying to make the Democratic party adopt the Platform of '52. A man now could not be in favor of the liberty of whites without being called an abolitionist.

Abolitionist was becoming a descriptive name of all that was patriotic against despotism. At the first Kansas election, when the people were preparing to vote for delegates to Congress they found suddenly among them armed bands from Missouri. They carried the election, and again in March when the people were to choose their territorial legislature for the first time, an army of from 7000 to 9000 men, armed with all manner of deadly weapons, with cannon thundering behind them, and wagons bearing military stores, and three gallons of mean whiskey to every man, went into every election district but one and carried them all; electing in many instances men of their own number, who had never been in Kansas before. They overthrew election boards and constituted others, and with the most horrid threats and oaths tried to draw away the legitimate voters from the polls.

What would you do if the people of Illinois and other States should come in and carry the election of Wisconsin in this manner? (Voices, "Fight, fight.") Of course you would fight. There is not a man, woman or child that wouldn't fight.

Resolved, That our counsel to the members of the Kansas train which left this city on the 20th of May is that they stand by their guns, and honor the land from which they came.

The Resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Col. Lane, in answer to a question by Dr. Douglass, gave an account of what the Western States are preparing to do for Kansas. He hoped the people of Wisconsin would not be backward.

Mr. Booth read a letter from a citizen in the interior, who was aroused by the sacking of Lawrence, urging the union of all for freedom. The thanks of the meeting were voted to Col. Lane.

Prof. Daniels made a brief and stirring appeal for Kansas, stirring the people to earnest action, showing that the people are at work in the interior, and urging the citizens of Milwaukee to liberal and speedy aid. He said that Kansas wants men—men who fear God and fear nobody else. Would that our gallant friend Col. Lane—had been at Lawrence, we would have had a different account from that place.—In the country, parties are preparing to go to fight if necessary; and we want to know who are ready to go or aid.

On motion, a committee was about to be appointed to obtain aid at once, when Col. Lane said Kansas wanted no money sent to her. She wanted a line of communication established and sustained by a liberal fund, so that Kansas could draw safely for aid. He asked—Can you not establish at Milwaukee a fund for freedom?

Mr. Tweedy said that it was too late now in this meeting to gather a fund. He said he gave $150 before with some misgiving, because he did not believe in sending women and children, when men were wanted to fight. He would double that amount to send men there to commit treason, and be hoped the United States District Attorney would indict him for aiding treason, and he would give $10 a month till the issue was over. He believed the Free-men of the North should be armed and ready to march to aid Kansas.

Mr. Wolcott said he would follow Mr. Tweedy's example.

John Durand—Put me down for $100. The Reliance Works were put down for $100.

Mr. Tweedy suggested that as it was very late, it was best to have a committee of fifteen, to meet and mature the plan for thorough organization.

The proposition was carried, and the following are the committee:

J. H. Tweedy, Dr. Wolcott, E. D. Fulton, Dr. Douglass, J. M. Durand, J. Seville, J. N. Ross, S. M. Booth, W. H. Watson, J. H. Paine, Wm. Lee, John Ogden, John Crouch, A. H. Bielfeldt, George Meane.

RACINE & MISSISSIPPI R. R.—The Racine Democrat of the 2d inst., says:—The grading is about finished between Delavan and Beloit on our R. R., and the tracklayers commence work in a few days.

The latest advice from Australia state that fresh discoveries have been made at Ophir Creek, and the opinion prevailed that Ophir was one large and rich gold field.

GREAT KANSAS BALLET.
At an early hour last evening Market Hall was crowded to its utmost capacity by the citizens of Milwaukee to listen to Col. LANE, known to the Country once as the gallant leader of the Indiana volunteers, upon the well-fought battle fields of Mexico, now U. S. Senator elect from Kansas.

ALBERT SMITH, Esq., was called to the Chair and introduced Col. LANE to the meeting, who proceeded to speak upon the wrongs and needs of Kansas.

After a beautiful and appropriate notice of the city in which he was then speaking, he appealed to the audience to say if when the Kansas and Nebraska bill was passed, it was not the common understanding that the people were to be left to determine for themselves whether they would have slaves or not in those territories. "Was it not also understood, and indeed declared by nearly all the leading defenders of that bill that slavery was shut out from Kansas by climate and production. That Kansas was sure to be a Free State. That it was only the settlement of a great principle, that they wanted, the democratic principle of

Then they have repealed that clause of the Kansas and Nebraska bill which allows foreigners, who have declared their intentions to become citizens, to vote. Look at that, German and Irish voters, whose votes are asked to keep in power the pro-slavery Administration which is your bitterest foe. They tried to disfranchise you totally in the Kansas-Nebraska bill. The whole South voted for your disfranchisement in a body. Their regard for you was shown the other day, when one of their Congressmen shot down a poor Irish waiter, and every one of the pro-slavery members voted against investigation of the matter.

Foreign born citizens, will you aid to keep in power these traitors, using you as their tools and then trampling you under foot. Col. Lane then alluded in thrilling words to the repeated wrongs and outrages which the people of Kansas had suffered. Not content with the complete annihilation of the rights of the free people of Kansas, the miscreants of the border set on, encouraged and protected, by Shannon Pierce and their myrmidons, had murdered, robbed and pillaged them. Within a brief period four of his intimate friends, men who had broken bread at his table and held his children in their arms, had been murdered in cold blood.

And yet there are men so audacious, so incorrigibly corrupt as to say that Kansas needs no protection.

There are those who from day to day labor studiously to conceal facts and distort the actual condition of things, and with cold-blooded atrocity claim that justice is done to the people of Kansas. They deny those outrages, while the ruffians of the Missouri border are boasting of them, and would spit upon their cowardly, lying apologists for such base misrepresentations. They need no such hireling, white-livered scoundrels to make out their case.—Men who attempt to serve the Slave Power by such impudent lying, ought to be lashed naked through the streets.

Col. Lane called upon all freemen to rally to the rescue. He had acted with the Democratic party for a long time. He was a member of Congress when the Kansas and Nebraska bill was passed, and voted for it.

He said he should feel a great deal nearer Heaven when he had the assurance that he was forgiven that political sin. He now knew but one question, and that the sole issue of the day. It was Freedom or Slavery in Kansas. Freedom in Wisconsin, what is your answer to the call of Kansas?

Col. LANE closed a most telling and effective speech amid thundering applause. His clear and positive statements of facts, his thrilling appeals, his withering sarcasm, carried everything before it. His whole make, manner and personale indicate the qualities which shone out so conspicuously on the bloody field of Buena Vista, and which may be needed yet in the arena, stirring scenes before us.

Mr. Hotchkiss, Secretary of the Kansas Aid Association, made a brief report. He said that near as could be learned, about 300 persons had gone out from Wisconsin to Kansas. He made a brief and pointed speech, directed to the question of what shall be done for Kansas. He presented the following resolution:

Resolved, That we regard the attack made upon American citizens, and especially the late nothing, or with milk-and-water platform and candidates. If this is done, all will be well, and a glorious triumph will be awarded to the Republican hosts. If not, let us vote to organize a new party, and enlist the true men in such a movement.

RAIN.—After about ten days of dry weather, the growing crops were refreshed by a shower Wednesday evening.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.—We learn that a son of Richard Benson, about 18 or 20 years of age, living near Hazel Green, when riding last Saturday evening, was struck by lightning and instantly killed, and the horse injured.

HORSE AND WAGON STOLEN.—A horse belonging to Mr. Isaac Lord, was stolen from L. Gendell's stable, on Sunday night last, and, to complete the outfit, and providing themselves with good traveling facilities, the thieves took a fine horse wagon and harness belonging to Lyman Cheever, with which they made tracks for Galena, the stage met them about three miles out of town. Mr. Lord followed them nearly to Galena, when he lost track of them.

Fires at Superior City.

The Superior Chronicle of the 20th ult., says: Mr. Aubrey, who lately lost his house on First Street by the devouring element, has again suffered from this scourge. While engaged in putting brush at his claim on the Pokegamon, his cabin took fire, and with everything in it was entirely destroyed.

Mr. Wm. Slaton, on returning to his claim on the Nemadji, on Sunday afternoon, after a few hours' absence, found his house, with its contents, entirely consumed.

A frame dwelling belonging to Mr. Powers, Fourth Street, took fire, yesterday, from a burning brush, but was saved by the exertion of one of the citizens.

BROOKLYN.—That the speech made by Mr. Sumner, which has subjected him to the most brutal treatment, is a speech any time worth dying for—perfect in its conception, arrangement and execution, conclusive in its argument and evidence, masterly in its exposure of executive usurpation, sublime in its moral heroism, invincible in its truthfulness, just in its personal impeachment, unsurpassed in its eloquence, and glorious in its object; that, sealed with his blood, it shall quicken the pulses of millions now living to engage in a death-grapple with the Slave Power, and go down to posterity as a rich legacy to the cause of universal Liberty.

WINTER WHEAT.—We learn from the Beaver Dam Republicans, that the winter wheat in that section looks fine, and promises an abundant harvest.

L BERAL.—At the recent great Kansas meeting in Detroit, Mr. Duncan Stewart, a well-known merchant of that city, offered to give $2,000 per year towards the maintenance of a company in Kansas to assist in making it a Free State.

Richard Co.—H. A. Eastland and Ira B. Hazlitt are the delegates to the Madison Republican Convention from Richland. They are instructed to vote for Seward delegates to the 1st Philadelphia Convention.

FRENCH STEAM FRIGATE.—The French Minister, M. Sarfage, received information at Washington, some ten days ago, that the French Steam Frigate Poncet had been despatched from the West India station to San Juan del Norte.

The proposition was carried, and the following are the committee:

J. H. Tweedy, Dr. Wolcott, E. D. Fulton, Dr. Douglass, J. M. Durand, J. Seville, J. N. Ross, S. M. Booth, W. H. Watson, J. H. Paine, Wm. Lee, John Ogden, John Crouch, A. H. Bielfeldt, George Meane.

FRIEND BOOTH—

DEAR SIR:—The Know Nothing Assembly met here this afternoon, under the assumed name of Republicans. E. Pier and J. W. Partridge were elected delegates to the Madison Convention. Mr. Pier is not a member of the order, nor do I think he sympathizes much with them. His course at Madison will tell. I suppose they elected him to save appearances. Mr. Partridge is a member of the Order, if actions and words can speak. He was Secretary of the County Convention held in this city a short time ago, to form a Republican Club, and, by the aid of the Know Nothing Herald of this city, published a garbled report of the doing of that Convention, suppressing a strong anti-Slavery Resolution, that passed without a dissenting voice. He certainly is a representative of the so-called Republicans, provided they go into partnership with Know Nothings, at Madison, and wish to suppress the true anti-Slavery feeling of the State. I intend to be there, and expect to see the papers signed and sealed.

After Mr. Partridge was elected, he made a motion himself to have the power of substitution, and under the crack of Buck's Know

Nothing whip—for he was a delegate, of course —and after a short resistance, the majority of he Convention adopted it. It is plain to be seen that if the Republicans and Know Nothings are to engineer the Republican party together, that the anti-Know Nothings, Whigs,

Free Soilers, Democrats and Liberty men are o proscribed, and will be proscribed, by such a combination, for their adherence to the principle of "Liberty to all." It is the sacred duty of all true men to oppose such an unholy combination, and save the Republican party from destruction; for if such a combination cannot be defeated, it ought to be destroyed, and a better organization take its place. For party that can go in for Freedom, for only a part of the human race, is not worth much.—

Lake Side Water Cure.—If the debilitated public had as good an opinion of the ability and skill of Dr. Kittridge alias "Nogg," of the Boston Chronotype, as we have, the Lake Side Water Cure of which he has charge, would not be efficacious enough to hold the patients applying for admission. We have never seen the Doctor, but we know him thoroughly both by his writings and by reputation, and we know him to be every inch a man and a physician.
